I understand that being involved in Children’s Ministries at MFBC, I am making a commitment to the following responsibilities:

I will maintain my personal relationship with Jesus Christ through regular Quiet Times (prayer and Bible study/ reading), and fellowship with other Christians.

I will attend Sunday morning worship regularly.

I will serve in a spirit of unity and loving support with our pastors and other ministry workers.

I will arrive at my place of ministry on time and well-prepared, striving to present God’s Word clearly to the children I minister to in a safe and warm environment.

I will make every effort to attend teacher meetings and enrichment classes offered.

Applicant’s Statement

The information contained in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I authorize any references, churches, or institutions listed in this application including any law enforcement agencies to give you any information regarding my character, background, and fitness for children’s ministries. I release such references from liability for any damage that may result from furnishing information to MFBC.
